

JAYLA A. FORBES

ENGINEERING TECHNOLOGY STUDENT

CONTACT

CELL: 242-816-6009
ALTERNATIVE PHONE: 242-392-3023
EMAIL: jaylaforbes09@gmail.com

OBJECTIVE

Motivated incoming Engineering student at the University of The Bahamas seeking practical industry experience to develop professional engineering skills. Eager to gain hands-on experience in engineering design, technical documentation, project support, and problem-solving while contributing strong communication, teamwork, and adaptability skills.

EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF THE BAHAMAS

Associate of Science in Engineering (Incoming Student)
Expected Start: Fall 2026

NASSAU CHRISTIAN SCHOOLS

High School Diploma
September 2020 – June 2026

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENTS

- 10 BJC passes; received Ministry of Education certificate for outstanding performance.
- 8 BGCSE passes.
- B.A.I.S.S. Debate Competition (Grades 10–12); received Best Speaker Award.
- 42 hours of volunteer service through community organizations.

SKILLS

Technical Skills

- Computer Proficiency
- Microsoft Office (Word, PowerPoint, Excel)
- Research & Information Gathering
- Mathematical & Analytical Skills
- Analytical Problem Solving
- Technical Documentation

Professional Skills

- Written & Verbal Communication
- Public Speaking & Presentation Skills
- Teamwork & Collaboration
- Leadership
- Organization & Time Management
- Attention to Detail
- Adaptability
- Reliability & Responsibility

References

- Available upon request